

Affiliate Disclosure

Effective Date: August 4, 2026

At The Heather Style, transparency and honesty are important to us. This Affiliate Disclosure explains how affiliate relationships work on our website.

Affiliate Relationships

Some of the links on this website are affiliate links. This means that if you click on one of these links and make a purchase, The Heather Style may earn a commission at no additional cost to you.

These commissions help support the time and resources required to create outfit calendars, styling content, educational resources, and maintain this website.

Our Recommendations

We only recommend products, brands, and services that we believe may provide value to our community.

Many products featured have been personally owned, worn, tested, or used by Heather. Others are selected based on quality, reputation, or because they complement the styling advice shared on this website.

Receiving a commission does not influence our opinions, recommendations, or reviews. Our goal is to provide honest styling advice and help you make informed purchasing decisions.

Prices

Using an affiliate link does not increase the price you pay. In many cases, you will pay the same price you would have paid by visiting the retailer directly.

Occasionally, affiliate partners may offer exclusive discounts or promotional offers that are available through our links.

Amazon Associates Disclosure

The Heather Style participates in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for websites to earn advertising fees by advertising and linking to Amazon.com.

As an Amazon Associate, we earn from qualifying purchases.

Other Affiliate Programs

The Heather Style may participate in affiliate programs offered by a variety of retailers, brands, and networks. These relationships may change over time as new partnerships are established.

Sponsored Content

From time to time, we may collaborate with brands through sponsored content, gifted products, or paid partnerships.

Whenever content is sponsored or we have received compensation beyond a standard affiliate commission, we will clearly disclose that relationship within the content, as required by applicable laws and regulations.

Your Choice

You are never under any obligation to purchase products through our affiliate links. We appreciate your support when you choose to do so, as it helps us continue creating content and resources for our community.
